

To all incoming 8th grade students:

Over the summer, you will be responsible for reading a novel and completing a written assignment. The book for incoming 8th grade students is Fever 1793 by Laurie Halse Anderson. After reading the novel, please complete the attached reading response worksheet packet. The worksheets will be collected upon return to school in September. There will also be a test based on the reading, which will be taken in September, as the first Literature assessment. Please bring the novel to class as there will be a discussion and review of the story prior to the test. In addition to the required reading, each student will choose 2 of the books to read from the list below. Students will not be tested on these books but should be prepared to engage in discussions and answer questions about them.

- **The Devil's Arithmetic* by Jane Yolan
- **Echo* by Pam Munoz Ryan
- **Esperanza Rising* by Pam Munoz Ryan
- **The Hobbit* by J.R.R. Tolkien
- **Walk Two Moons* by Sharon Creech
- **Project 1065* by Alan Gratz
- **Out of My Mind* by Sharon Draper

Have a fun, relaxing summer!

Sincerely,

Ms. Jauss
